St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, was preſented to the King by Sir Jacob Bouverie, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, deſire to preſent this congratulatory Addreſs on your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival to your lawful and rightful Throne of this Kingdom.

The Intrepidity with which your Majeſty, regardleſs of Death in all its Terrors, led on your Troops, and the gallant Behaviour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, were, under God, the Cauſe of the glorious and never-to-be-forgotten Victory at Dettingen; a Victory the more important, as the Liberties of Europe were ſo nearly concerned in it, and a convincing Proof, that Courage and Bravery are the innate Principles of your auguſt Houſe.

This, Sir, is a Truth univerſally confeſſed, and will add more Luſtre to your Royal Character in the Annals of Poſterity, than the moſt ſervile Flattery, however ſet off and adorned with a pompous Sound of Words.

We beg Leave at the ſame Time to congratulate you on the Birth of another Prince, and the happy Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

May the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms be equal to the Juſtice of your Cauſe, till the haughty and dangerous Views of your Enemies are defeated, and Trade and Commerce ſettled on a laſting and proſperous Foundation. Given under the Seal of Office of Mayoralty at the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, this Thirty-firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred forty three.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, was preſented to the King by Thomas Watſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Fatigue of a Campaign for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe. Our Joy on this Occaſion was proportionate to the real Concern we were under for the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, expos'd to the precarious Event of a Battle, where the indiſcriminate Ball might have determined the Fate of Europe, and expos'd an headleſs Army to fall a Prey to their mercileſs Enemies: But we with Pleaſure reflect on the Succeſs of the ally'd Arms, owing, under God, to your Majeſty's Preſence and Conduct.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Increaſe of your Royal Family by the ſafe Delivery of the Princeſs of Wales of a Prince, whereby Providence has afforded us an additional Security for all that is dear to us.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to applaud your Wiſdom and Prudence in your Choice of a Huſband for the Princeſs Louiſa; a Marriage with the Prince Royal of Denmark muſt lay a Foundation for a laſting Friendſhip with your and that Royal Family; it muſt ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and give that Power an additional Weight in the North, where your Majeſty's trading Subjects have no inconſiderable Concern.

We pray that your Majeſty may long live to be a Patron of Liberty, a Protector of the Privileges and Commerce of your trading Subjects, and a bright Example of every Virtue to your Succeſſors.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, was preſented to the King; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the KING.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, in the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and obedient Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, beg Leave to preſent our humble and reſpectful Duty to your Majeſty jeſty on your happy Return to your Kingdoms.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Joy on this happy Occaſion, when we conſider the great and imminent Danger your ſacred Life hath been expoſed to in the Field, and the Succeſs which hath attended your victorious Arms: But we beg Leave, Great Sir, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to teſtify that high Senſe we have of your Majeſty's Magnamity and unwearied Cares and Concern for the Liberties of Europe, and the Intereſt and Safety of theſe Realms.

We likewiſe with great Humility congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter to the Prince of Denmark; and on the Encreaſe of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family by the Birth of another Prince.

We pray to God that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long, happy and glorious; that a Prince of your Royal Houſe may never be wanting to ſit upon the Throne of this Kingdom. Given under our Common Seal at Scarbrough the Twenty Sixth Day of December 1743.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Saltaſh, was preſented to the King by Thomas Corbet and Stamp Brooksbank, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Saltaſh in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Saltaſh, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Arrival in this Kingdom, after the Fatigues and Dangers of a glorious Campaign, in which your Majeſty's Conduct and Magnanimity ſo conſpicuouſly contributed to the repelling the common Enemy, and driving them out of Germany.

We alſo beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the gallant Behaviour of the Duke, who ſo well followed the great Example of your Majeſty in the Day of Battle, and ſupported the Dignity of the Royal Blood from which he is ſprung.

The Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Birth of another Prince to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, are Events which muſt give great Pleaſure to all the Well-wiſhers to your Majeſty's Royal Family, and the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms; we do therefore, with Hearts full of Joy, beg your Majeſty's favourable Acceptance of our Congratulations thereupon, and of our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that theſe Kingdoms may never want a Deſcendant from your Majeſty to fill the Throne. Given under our common Seal at our Guildhall, this 27th Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, January 4.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, was preſented to the King by the Reverend Obadiah Hughes, D. D. attended by ſeveral of his Brethren; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Concurrence of many favourable Providences, which have lately attended your Royal Perſon and Family; in whoſe Proſperity we are greatly intereſted, and feel a moſt ſenſible Pleaſure.

Your Majeſty's ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions rejoiced the Hearts of all your good Subjects.——This Joy was much increaſed, by reflecting on the extreme Dangers, to which, in Defence of the Liberties of Europe, you generouſly expoſed your Life in the Fields of Dettingen, and acquired immortal Honour; where, under the Influence of Heaven, and animated by your Preſence and Valour, the confederate Army gain'd an important Victory over the common Enemy.

This, with the Recovery of the Duke from the honourable Wound he receiv'd in the Battle; the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, is ſuch a Series of Events, as greatly encourages our Hopes, that the Goodneſs of God will perpetuate the Bleſſings, which we perſuade ourſelves his Providence deſigned in placing your Majeſty's Family upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms: Under which we have enjoy'd ſo many Years of Peace and Proſperity.

We gladly embrace this Opportunity, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are deeply ſenſible of our Share in the publick Happineſs under your auſpicious Government; and that we ſhall, from Principles both of Gratitude and of Conſcience, continue our Endeavours to impreſs the Minds, of thoſe to whom we miniſter, with ſuch Sentiments, as tend to confirm them in Loyalty and Affection to ſo excellent a Prince.

Nor ſhall we ceaſe to offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to the King of Kings, that Wiſdom from above may always direct your Majeſty's Counſels, and ſuch further Succeſs attend your Arms, as may produce that laſting Security of the Liberties of Europe, and thoſe Bleſſings to theſe Kingdoms, which your Majeſty has in View: —— That your Majeſty's moſt precious Life may continue to be the ſpecial Care of the Almighty, who cover'd your Head in the Day of Battle; — That after a long and proſperous Reign, you may inherit a Crown of Immortality in the World to come: — And that there never may be wanting a Succeſſor in your Royal Line, who, after your Majeſty's great Example, ſhall be the Guardian of the Liberties of theſe Kingdoms, till Time ſhall be no more. Dated Jan. 4, 1743-4.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this dutiful Addreſs; you may always depend upon the Continuance of my Protection.

They were receiv'd very graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

St. James's, January 6.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, was preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Vere Beauclerc, and Arthur Sturt, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth in the County of Devon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after your glorious Actions Abroad, in Behalf of the Liberties of Europe, and the Balance of Power, againſt the Enemies of both, ſo much to the Honour of the Britiſh Name: And we cannot but expreſs our ſincere and hearty Thanks to Heaven, for preſerving your ſacred Perſon amidſt all the Dangers and Fatigues of a hazardous Campaign.

We likewiſe congratulate your Majeſty on the auſpicious Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; an Alliance moſt grateful to your Subjects, as it evidently tends to the Supporting, Uniting, and Strengthening of the Proteſtant Intereſt.

Nor can we paſs by the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government; the Conſideration of which, and the Proſpect of their being delivered down to our lateſt Poſterity, by the Addition of another Son of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, cannot but fill our Hearts with Joy and Gladneſs, and the moſt ſincere and fervent Prayers and Wiſhes for the Proſperity of your Majeſty, and all your Royal Deſcendants.

May Heaven continue to guard and protect your Majeſty, and to grant you Succeſs in all your Undertakings for the Publick Good of theſe Nations, and for the Liberties, Welfare, and Peace of all Europe in general.

Conſtantinople, November 20.

The following is a Tranſlation of the Cajme, lately arrived at the Sublime Porte from the Governor of Muſſul, Abdilzzelil Oglou Huſſein Paſcia.

ON the 25th of laſt Moon of Cezzep, being Sabbath Day, Nadir Sáhh, with a numerous Army, being arrived at Muſſul, pitched his Tents in the Neighbourhood of the Place, near what is called the Village of the Prophet Jonas; where after having made a Stay of ſome Days, on the 2d of laſt Month of Saban, he himſelf roſe up, and in Perſon took a turn round the whole Place to obſerve its Situation, and having raiſed Batteries, and made Entrenchments to form the Siege of the ſaid Place, he approached it with his Troops, and on the 4th of the ſame Moon, began to batter it in twelve Parts with great Cannon: And on the 8th, which was a Friday, at Ten o'Clock, he threw an infinite Number of Bombs from twelve Batteries againſt it, continuing Night and Day, when the Beſieged had great difficulty to ſave the advanced Works from the Execution of the Bombs, perſiſting with incredible Courage in the Defence, by firing continually againſt the Aſſailants, which Fire on both Sides laſted eight Days and eight Nights, and the Bombs thrown againſt the Place were counted upwards of Seventy thouſand, beſides the continual firing of Muskets. After this he cauſed the River Tigris to be cut off in the Neighbourhood of a Place called Cara Sarai, and to be turned into the other Channel; he preſſed the Beſieged continually with Numbers of his Troops, who not in the leaſt abating in their Courage, both I, and the Governour of Aleppo, his Excellency Huſſein Huſſein Paſcià, with a military Example, inceſſantly animated the Garriſon, and cloſely attended the repairing of thoſe Parts that had been ruined by the Cannon of the Enemy, who having formed Mines, and in eight Days Time provided all Sorts of Inſtruments, eſpecially 1700 Ladders, which he made his Soldiers carry upon their Shoulders for the Aſſault; and having paſſed the Tigris with all his Troops to apply the ſaid Scales to the Walls, in the mean time he ſet Fire to the Mines, two of which by mere Providence turning backwards, buried a great Number of their Men, and the reſt of the Mines remained without the leaſt Operation; notwithſtanding which, he forced his Troops to the Aſſault, and to apply the Ladders. But the Beſieged were as active in repelling them with Granadoes, Bombs, and Fire-arms, making a continual Slaughter of the impertinent Enemies: the Fight between the two Parties laſting ſeven Hours, it being Friday, after which, at about The 8th Hour, our Troops had the Succeſs, by the particular Providence of the juſt God, to get the better, and to remain Conquerors, having cut off 5400 Enemies, and the Remainder of their Troops not being any longer able to withſtand the heroick Courage of our victorious Soldiers, were forced to fly and retire to their Camp; whilſt we had but 40 in all of our Men killed during the whole Time of this Siege and Action. In ſhort, all the Projects contrived from the Beginning by the perfidious Enemy proved but vain Attempts, ſo that growing at laſt deſperate, with the greateſt Confuſion and Diſperſion of his Troops, not being able any longer to ſubſiſt in theſe Parts, he in haſte repaſſed the River Dizzlé, and retired to his own Country. Which being to be aſcribed to God's ſpecial Favour, and to the auguſt Fortune of our invincible Monarch, we are obliged to continual Prayers that the Divine Majeſty may be pleaſed to perpetuate his Imperial Triumphs.

Whitehall, January 2.

The King having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. Samuel Lord Sandys, Baron of Ombersley, to be Cofferer of his Majeſty's Houſehold, his Lordſhip was this Day ſworn into the ſaid Office accordingly.

Whitehall, Dec. 30, 1743.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that on Tueſday the 1ſt Day of November laſt, Benjamin Hewitt, Servant to John Briſcoe, of Ledſham in the County of Cheſter, Yeoman, was found barbarouſly murdered in a Field belonging to the ſaid John Briſcoe, about a Mile diſtant from his Dwelling-houſe in Ledſham aforeſaid: For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who committed the ſaid Murder, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually killed the ſaid Benjamin Hewitt) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
